ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. Admitted. Mr. J.J. Yagnik waives service of notice of admission on behalf of the respondents. With the consent of learned advocates for the parties, the matter is taken today for final hearing.

2. Having heard the learned advocates for the parties, without entering into larger questions on factual aspects, it transpires that the appellant is not permitted to resume duty at Ajmer despite the transfer and he is also not paid subsistence allowance. Learned Advocate, Mr. Yagnik states that, in this regard, if a representation is made, the authorities concerned will give due consideration.

3. As such without observing anything on merits, this appeal is disposed off with an observation that it would be open for the appellant to make a representation to the authorities concerned of the respondents for joining duty at Ajmer and for payment of subsistence allowance. It would also be open for him to make a representation for changing his head quarter from Ajmer to Baroda or any other convenient place and the authorities will decide the representation in accordance with law without being influenced by the observations made hereinabove. The appellant will make a representation within three weeks from today and the authorities concerned will decide the same within four weeks from the receipt of the representation. Appeal is, accordingly, disposed off. No costs.
